HABLAMOS JUNTOS Together We Speak

Contemporary Latino Artists

Judithe Hernández

Maria’s childhood was difficult. She grew up in a neighborhood where guns were like fireworks at night. Houses were falling apart, with broken windows. It was a very lonely neighborhood.—Alexis Rangel, Watsonville student

La niñez de María fue difícil. Ella creció en un barrio donde las pistolas sonaban como fuegos artificiales durante la noche. Las casas se caían a pedazos con ventanas rotas. Era un barrio muy solitario.—Alexis Rangel

Virgen de la Oscuridad, pastel on paper, 44” x 30”

Museo Eduardo Carrillo  Pajaro Valley Arts  Young Writers Program
Arts Council Santa Cruz County  Community Foundation Santa Cruz County  City of Watsonville
City of Santa Cruz  Pajaro Valley Unified School District

Image copyright the Artist. All rights reserved. Design copyright Museo Eduardo Carrillo, Pajaro Valley Arts & Young Writers Program. All rights reserved. Designed by VoW Winters, VoW Studio.